Message from Managing Director

India is very bewildering and vast with industries. If, we talk evolved technologies and Automation 4.0 shall take over everything by storm, we are missing on accounts of vital controls & automation systems those prevails already, two decades of sound experience and we have seen the automation systems to take over primitive systems. NCVTians zeal to serve and pursuit for perfection shall definitely elevate your goals to optimize the outcome at even better levels. We believe sustainable future by keeping WIN-WIN quotient among all spheres is the need of the time. It's my honor to be participative in your journey as trusted partner. Future belongs to us.

Sincerely
Niketan Singh Lakum
